

Mr. Alfred Cheung

Mr. Alfred Cheung has over 20 years of experience in university, think tank, private firm, and NGO, keeping enthusiasm in education, science, and public affairs and policy for Hong Kong and mainland China as well. He is co-founder of International Mathematical Modeling Challenge (IMMC) and a founding director of Hong Kong Society for Industrial and Applied Mathematics (HKSIAM). He chaired the Local Organizing Committee of the 19th International Conference on the Teaching of Mathematical Modeling and Applications (ICTMA-19). Mr. Cheung is now Deputy Director of Tianda Institute.